Cousins claim Elk Point 4-H steer honours

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Two cousins who are both junior members of the Elk Point 4-H Multi Club showed the Grand and Reserve champion steers at last Friday's achievement day at the C. G. Baker Memorial Arena. Jarred Vallee showed the Grand Champion to take home the Elk Point Co-op trophy while first-year member Brittany Houle capped off her first year with the club by showing the Reserve Champion for the Farm Business Consultants trophy.

The champion steers were chosen by conformation judges Todd and Sue Bygrove from a field of eight steers chosen in preliminary judging of four weight categories. Steers shown by Katelynn Vallee, Melissa Frisby, Jessica Wirsta, Laryssa Cochrane, Alanna Ockerman and Micheal Wandler were also part of the Parade of Champions.

Earlier in the show, Shaun Robinson took home an armload of trophies. His yearling was judged Grand Champion Heifer, for a trophy sponsored by Wozniak Fuel Sales. His three-year-old won Grand Champion Cow-Calf, sponsored by TD Canada Trust and his two-year-old the Reserve Champion Cow-Calf, sponsored by CJ Petroleum, the three-year-old later taking the Supreme Champion Female trophy Lazy H Simmentals and the two-year-old the Reserve Supreme Female, sponsored by the Danyluk Family. All five animals combined to win the Herds Class trophy from L7R Limousins. Reserve Champion Heifer was shown by Alanna Ockerman for the Lakeland Tirecraft trophy.

All members were judged on grooming and showmanship by Anita Doktor throughout the day. Junior Grooming honors went to Darren Tymofichuk for the Home Town Grocers award and Alanna Ockerman for the Irvine Transportation Services plaque. Intermediate winners were Robyn Ockerman, winning the Depuill's Agricenter Ltd. Trophy, and Melissa Frisby, winning the Patch Pride Oilfield Services plaque. Senior winners were Chelsea Schnurer, receiving the Elk Point Insurance and Realty trophy, and Michelle Zapesocki, winning the Green Acres Sod Farm plaque.

The Clayton Orr Memorial trophy halts for Showmanship went to junior Jarred Vallee, intermediate Laryssa Cochrane and senior Shaun Robinson. Placing second were junior Kayla Gibson, for a plaque sponsored by George and Diana Anderson, intermediate Jessica Wirsta, with a plaque from Zapesocki Trucking, and senior Chelsea Schnurer, for the SR Rentals plaque.

The members also had their turn at judging a pen of steers, with Terry Holmgren tallying the results of their judging cards. Junior winners were Alanna Ockerman and Brittany Houle, for awards sponsored by Cal's Home Hardware and St. Paul Karate Club. Intermediate winners Bryant Schnurer and Janice Tymofichuk received awards from Kurek Farms and True Rod Welding, while senior winners Derek Wruth and Micheal Wandler accepted prizes from Lloydminster Heavy Crude and Prairie Tech Oilfield Services.

Ringmen for the show were Mark Ference and Peter Danyluk, show clerks were Ellen Seward and Lucille Smith, weigh masters were Murray Cochrane and Glen Ockerman and weight recorders were Wanda Cochrane and Donna Ockerman. Mistress of ceremonies was Jamie Schnurer.

Also displayed at the show were the creations of scrapbooking project leader Lori Nelson and members Melissa Frisby, Britney Heathcote, Robyn Ockerman and Lacy Wandler, and Amanda Zapesocki's Creative Options project, outlining seminars and workshops she developed as a junior leader of the beef project.

There are two more 4-H shows coming up this weekend, with the Horse Project achievement day Friday evening and the St. Paul and District Invitational Heifer Show and woodworking project achievement day on Sunday at the C. G. Baker Memorial Arena.

Sellout sixth annual Emergency Services tournament for STARS

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Elk Point Emergency Services hosted their sixth annual Golf Tournament in support of the Shock Trauma Air Rescue Society on Wednesday, June 1, with a full slate of 135 golfers on hand.

The first five STARS tournaments raised a total of more than $75,000, and "obviously, the whole community supports this event," STARS representative Karen Frost said as she expressed appreciation to sponsors, participants and planning committee. "It's tremendous to see this."

Frost said she "golfed with a good group today" and is eager to come back to next year's tournament.

Elk Point Mayor Parrish Tung noted that STARS has purchased two new helicopters which will enable them to extend their range as far as Cold Lake, making the region safer because of the coverage. "They truly have become coverage for the whole province. I salute all who support this endeavour."

Tournament chairman Fred Lambright said the tournament was "a total sellout. We had a dozen others and three more teams who wanted to get in, but we were full up. One team even drove up from Calgary. It's almost the big social event of the year."

The success of the event comes from both the participants and the sponsors, Lambright said. "Without the sponsors, from the smallest to the biggest, we don't have a tournament. We had donations from everywhere. The support was phenomenal. I thank them all from the bottom of my heart. It shows where their heart is." Some of this support came in the form of items used in the tournament itself, including E-Can's big tent and Weatherford's giant barbecue, and the efforts of a dedicated squad of volunteers. "Nothing would happen without all my volunteer helpers."

RCMP Cst. Dalyn Orsten, who was part of the organizing committee, said, "with the generous support of the community, we will be able to donate in excess of $15,000 to the Shock Trauma Air Rescue Society. STARS is a vital link for the safety of all rural Albertans and through the support of the community, we show our appreciation for their service. Everyone who supported the tournament deserves a well-earned thank you."

Over $1,500 of the proceeds came from the silent auction, which Lambright termed a great success. "The STARS jacket went for over $200, and the high bidder donated it back so it could be sold again, so we got a second $200 from that." Another boost came from Elk Point and District Lions Club, whose team donated an amount equal to their entry fees.

Lambright said the tournament got off to a "chaotic start, but once it got going it was an absolute, phenomenal success." He said it took five hours for the first round, "but everybody was going at the same pace, and nobody cared." By the time players were coming in from their second round, "people were saying, 'I'm coming back next year.' Everybody had an absolute blast and are willing to come back."

Response was so good that the committee is considering making this an invitation-only event, with other golfers invited to join in after previous participants have had the first chance at entering.

After two rounds of golf under showery skies, Curtis Porcina and his Cal's Home Hardware teammates Mark Woytkiw, Kim Werenka, Jim Vinge and Dustin Yaremkevich came in with the low score of 11 under par to win the STARS trophy caps. The Health Centre team and the Elk Point Ambulance team tied once again for high score and Pepe le Pew trophies bearing the legend, "Last is best." Porcina also came closest to the pin in two strokes on Hole #9 to win cups and blankets from Grecco for his team.

Four lucky golfers took home $100 bills, Todd "Knuckles" Jacula winning the Hidden Hole prize, Ron Fayant having the most accurate drive, Warren Bader the longest putt and Wesley Fayant's name drawn from those going out of bounds on Hole #7.

Many of the day's golfers received door prizes ranging from caps and golf balls to a lawn chair and a golf bag.

Three major draw prizes were sponsored by Elk Point Emergency Services, with a quarter of beef and a cut and wrapped pork going to Lindsay Jenner, a $250 UFA gift certificate to Ian Checkly and a $150 Co-op gift certificate to Kevin McDonald.

Four impressive Hole-in-One prizes were up for grabs, and although one golfer came within four inches of the mark, none were able to claim the his-and-hers motorcycles from Doug & Doug's Honda in Lloydminster, a $10,000 bursary from ATB Financial, $5000 from Elk Point Emergency Services or a prize from Hunting, Calgary.

STARS representative Karen Frost reads out the name of another winner while Dalyn Orsten displays the prize.

Goal getting closer

By Vicki Brooker
Review Staff

Elk Point Volunteer Fire Department's lengthy project of raising more than a quarter of a million dollars for a new rescue van just got shorter.

Cam Kinniburgh, David Cousins and Bernard Parenteau came to town with a really big cheque - a donation of $25,000 to the worthy cause.

"Canadian Natural is proud to fund worthwhile community projects that positively impact the local communities where we have operations," Kinniburgh said. "In particular, our commitments to health and safety and community capacity building helped influence our decision to support this project."

"Our Contribution to the Elk Point Volunteer Fire Department is aligned with our mission of developing people and working together and is consistent with our vision of assisting communities in their long term growth and vitality. Moreover, as an active producer and member of the community, we recognize the importance of the Volunteer Fire Department in ensuring that Elk Point remains a safe place to live and work."

Fire Department representative Nigel LaFrance says the very generous donation will be received over a two-year period: the first installment of $10,000 was received on June 2, and the second installment of $15,000 will be made July 1, 2006.

Another recent donation to the fund came from Richard Nelson, in the amount of $200.

"It's nice to see that there are people that support the efforts of the Volunteer Fire Department," LaFrance says. "We would also like to remind everyone that it is not too late to make a donation towards the replacement fund." Information on making a donation is available by calling Nigel at 724-4373 or 724-3283.

Michael Carey confirmed for Canada Day stage show lineup

By Vicki Brooker
Review Staff

He's coming back! A return visit by Michael Carey, who wowed last year's Canada Day crowd, and who sang for Queen Elizabeth on her recent visit to Edmonton, was confirmed by stage show organizer Thomas Kondla at last week's Canada Day Committee meeting.

Planning for the 2005 Canada Day celebrations is almost complete, with just a few details yet to be nailed down, and a few more entertainers to be confirmed.

Another activity confirmed at the meeting was the addition to the lineup of a "Strong Man" competition, which will be held on the street north and east of the A. G. Ross Arena starting at noon on Canada Day. Contact Roger Smith for details.

The Elk Point Oilmens' Association "Tug of the Century" will be located near the Elks Hall and is scheduled to start at 3:30 p.m., shortly after completion of the stage show. It should be a fun, old-time competition by great teams, according to organizer Don Mudryk.

Dave Pilisko and Laverne Wilson are organizing the "Amazing Farm Survival Race" and told the committee that they have come up with some challenging events.

Waste Management employee robbed at knife point

By Cst. DALYN ORSTEN
Elk Point RCMP

Two suspects are still at large in a daylight armed robbery on May 26.

At approximately 9:15 a.m. that day, Elk Point RCMP responded to a complaint that a Waste Management employee had been robbed at knife point in an alley between 53rd and 54th Avenues, west of 50th Street.

Two suspects approached the man and the taller of the two grabbed him from behind, placing a knife to his neck. He was told to freeze and they then removed his wallet from his front pocket. He was then told not to turn around or he would be shot. The two suspects fled on foot in a westward direction down the alley.

Suspect #1 is a male approximately six feet tall, wearing a denim jacket. The second suspect was wearing a red and blue pullover jacket and was shorter than the first suspect.

Police currently have no further description of the suspects and are requesting that anyone who may have observed the males prior to or after the robbery to immediately contact the Elk Point RCMP.

Anyone having any information regarding this or any other crime is urged to contact the RCMP at 724-3964 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $2,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible.

Thanks FOR BUYING LOCAL

Thanks For Buying Local Elk Point

Elk Point businesses are some of the best in Alberta and they compete with large businesses from Edmonton and Cold Lake on a regular basis. We truly appreciate the support of our local customers and would like to extend a huge "Thanks for Buying Local". During the month of June we'll show our thanks by displaying signs, wearing buttons and giving you the chance to win a total of $1000 in Elk Point bucks. In economic development terms your locally spent dollar 'recycles' 7 or 8 times throughout the community. This happens not only through wages, but purchases for gas, groceries, meals, gifts and professional services. So it does make sense to buy locally for your pocket-book, and for the well being of your community. Next time you're in the market for something new, think local and "put your money where your house is".

Saluting our seniors

It's Seniors' Week in Elk Point and across the province - a week to celebrate the older members of our community and all they contribute to our society.

If the word 'seniors' has you picturing a tottery crowd who spend all their time reminiscing in rocking chairs, you obviously haven't been around Elk Point Seniors Recreation Centre. That facility has a very busy calendar, with a wealth of activities, from carpet bowling and floor curling to bingo, cards and dances for our older folks to enjoy.

And then there's the Alberta Senior Citizens Sports and Recreation Association, who will soon be taking part in the Alberta Seniors' Summer Games. The list of available sports is lengthy, and has something for almost everyone to enjoy. Many of our seniors have returned from these competitions bearing medals, and we're proud of their accomplishments.

Elk Point and district seniors are active in many local organizations, and we appreciate their insight and input as we make decisions for the present and future.

Seniors draw from many years of experience to give good advice, their stories of years gone by give us a view of life in Alberta's past, and they provide a willing and eager audience for performances, both scheduled and impromptu, by our youngsters.

Seniors are a very valuable resource to have as part of a community. A community without seniors would seem to lack a past on which to draw when considering the future.

Have a great week, seniors!

Lung Association campaign a success

By GRANNY DAWN BRUINS

Review Contributor

Well, everybody, we did it. If you've checked our sign, it will tell you we made $2,150 for the Lung Association. Thank you everyone in and around Elk Point. That's almost five times as much as the previous record total. Our jar in the store had $94.12 in it.

I'd like to thank Sarah, Christain, Peggy, Wayne and Linda, Marlene, the Kondla family, Tate and Sabrina, Shaidel, Trina and Jackie for going out there and doing a good job.

From my corner of the world, I think we can be very proud of ourselves this year. But (and there is always a but) when you do a good job you are asked to do it again next year.

I'd like to be a fly on the wall when they open our box at the Lung Association office.

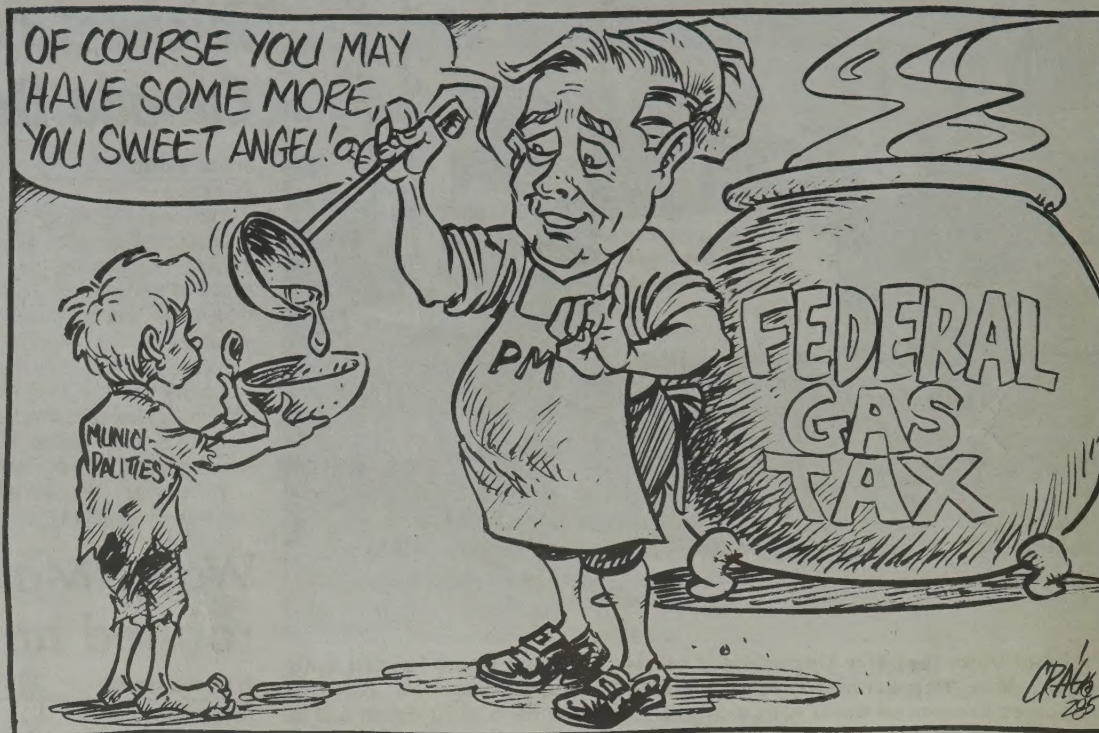

My husband Henny tells me I'm quite pushy when I'm after money for someone else. In that case, I'll say I'm sorry if I came across as pushy, but I did want your dollar.

Thanks, everyone, for being so nice to the kids, they're still going to help me with my path. I had people ask if someone had been nasty to the kids. No one had, it was just that I know people are fed up with being asked for money.

So, thank you, everyone, for helping to make us look so good, and on that note, we'll be back again next year for your $1.

P.S. The Lung Association just phoned, and said to give everyone a hug of appreciation! Consider yourself hugged!

OUR VIEWS

Our Alberta Canada Day

The month is June, which means our July 1 Canada Day celebrations are only a few weeks away. For our celebrations in Elk Point, plans are still being finalized. We hope you all are planning to take part in the activities. Because we are also celebrating Alberta's centennial, you will also note there will be some sense of history in our celebrations. Mark your calendars.

I can tell you some things about the celebrations. The Chamber of Commerce will once more do their Pancake Breakfast. Thank you, Chamber! Our parade will start at 11:00 a.m. and it will use the same route as last year. The band we all enjoyed is confirmed to be here again this year. We are all happy about that as a band that leads a parade really makes a parade. Then from approximately 12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m. There will be 'Forts activities.' This is kind of "old time" games and such, put on by Fort George and Buckingham House Interpretive Centre staff. Following this, the outdoor stage show will begin with the usual raising of the Canada Day flag and the singing of O Canada. Of course, the Alberta flag will be there as well. As to the performers, some guests are still to be finalized. However, we do know the Elk Point Ukrainian Dancers will be performing. And if you are hungry, the Figure Skating Club will have a booth in the arena, the Christian Community Church will have their delicious pies in a tent by the stage and the Royal Purple ladies will be able to give you a piece of the Canada Day birthday cake. This will all take place north of the A. G. Ross Arena.

This year, after the stage show, we are asking you to migrate down to the Elks Hall. These good people are preparing a "beef on a bun" supper for you. The kids will be able to go to the basement of the Elks Hall and enjoy games, a magician, a clown, etc., These details are still to be worked out. And... outside the Elks Hall there will be a "Tug of War of the Century." Yes, that is right. A really exciting tug of war will be taking place, sponsored, by the Oilmen's Association. Then south of Railway Avenue, there will be a tractor challenge and such.

Then in the evening, it is back up to the Arena for the Firemen's beerfest. This all happens on July 1. What about June 30? Well, since our F. G. Miller High School Grade 12 class is using the arena for their celebration, there will be a jamboree at the Seniors' Recreation Centre for all those who enjoy dancing. Now you are all probably asking the question: "Will there be fireworks?" The answer to that question is twofold. One, will we be able to raise enough money to cover all our expenses, of which the fireworks are the main expense? Ladies and gentlemen, we are getting close but we still need more financial help. Please help us if you can. We really do appreciate all the donations that have come in so far and we thank everyone. Who are these people? Look for our 'thank you' ad close to July 1 and we will tell you. The second part of the answer to whether we will have fireworks is, it depends on the weather and the day. We are hoping for the best and Mother Nature and the fireworks people are still finalizing those plans.

Other activities and happenings are still being finalized. Keep reading this newspaper as further details will be unfolding. To celebrate Canada Day with a special focus on Alberta's centennial is really a great opportunity for all of us. We are all a part of "Alberta Growth, Alberta Strong." Speaking of 'strong,' here is a hint. Some of the plans underway are taking place around that.

No showers on Auto Club Show and Shine

By Vicki Brooker
Review Staff

Five works in progress and one home-built helicopter were among the 31 treasures on display at Elk Point Auto Club's Show and Shine last Saturday.

Many of the vehicles were return visitors to the show, and one of these, Paul Buoy's red 1958 Chev Impala from Vegreville, was named the People's Choice for the Quality Time Tours trophy as well as placing first in the Show category, this trophy sponsored by Lakeland Real Estate Services.

Maynard Swedgan's Safari helicopter placed second in the Show category for the Woody's Trophy and Gift award.

The Oldest Vehicle, for the Kuhn's Kollictibles trophy, was Bob Lee's bright yellow 1929 DeSoto roadster, which also won the Elk Point Auto Club trophy in the Antique category. Second place went to John Robinson's 1969 Mustang, which won the Mystery Man Auto Parts trophy.

Richard Stacey brought his 1955 Ford pickup all the way from Calgary to win the Farthest Away trophy from Home Town Grocers.

Don Pilisko won the Restoration Project trophy from Elk Point Burger Bar.

Other winners, with trophy donors in brackets, were:

Convertible: 1. Henri Seguin, St. Walburg, SK, 1968 Ford Galaxie (Elk Point Insurance and Realty), 2. Ron Froese, St. Paul, 1977 Corvette (Garnier Farms).

Truck: 1. Brian Samuels, Cold Lake, 1950 Ford (B & D Industrial), 2. Darcy Kozicki, Red Deer (Wilton Automotive).

What you need to know about hantavirus

Hantavirus is a potentially deadly infection spread by deer mice.

You can reduce your risk of infection by taking some simple precautions when disposing of mice or their droppings, urine, or nesting material:

- Ventilate enclosed areas for 30 minutes before cleaning.
- Do not sweep or use a vacuum cleaner.
- Wear rubber gloves, saturate the droppings with disinfectant such as diluted bleach solution (one part bleach to 10 parts water), wipe up with a paper towel and discard in a sealed double garbage bag.

Minimize the presence of mice by eliminating food sources and nesting materials, and preventing them from entering your home.

For more information visit www.health.gov.ab.ca or call Health Link Alberta - in Edmonton, call 408-LINK (5465); in Calgary, call 943-LINK (5465); or outside the Edmonton and Calgary local calling areas, call toll-free 1-866-408-LINK (5465).

Employee honored for 25 years with Canada Post

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Elk Point Canada Post employee Celena Ballek was honored recently on the occasion of her 25th anniversary with Canada Post, 19 of those years in Legal, Alberta and the past six in Elk Point.

She received a watch, pendant and flowers from Canada Post, and enjoyed serving cake and coffee to well-wishers, including some of her former co-workers who have now retired.

Her employment with Canada Post date back to the era of the 17¢ stamp, which Ballek says ended soon after she started, with a big jump in postal rates at the beginning of 1981.

Much else has changed over the years along with the continual climb in the cost of sending a letter, Ballek says. "We've definitely gone into more retail items. When I started, it was all stamps and money orders. Now you can come here and shop for gifts and packaging to send them in."

The collector coins are another major addition to the Canada Post lineup, and one very popular with customers, she adds.

One of the biggest changes has been the arrival of computers at the post office. Ballek said that the transition took a while, but "it's helped, once we got onto it."

Improved services and an enhanced image are also part of the changes that have come to the post office in recent years, she adds.

Ballek enjoys serving the public and plans to continue her career as a proud employee of Canada Post.

Celena Ballek cuts a festive cake celebrating her 25 years with Canada Post.

Craft supplies needed @ the library

By ROSEANN MAGDIAK
Elk Point Public Library

We are in need of donations of recycled items to use for craft projects that the children involved in the summer reading program and preschool summer story time will be creating. We need: baby food jars, other small jars, paper towel rolls, toilet paper rolls, paper plates, pie plates and large brown paper bags.

An urgent reminder to those of you planning to register your children in the Summer Reading Program at the Elk Point Public Library: the registration nights are Wednesday, June 8 and Wednesday, June 15 from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. We will be collecting a fee at the time of registration which will be used toward attendance. The number of children that registered last year was enormous. Please plan to register your children as early as possible to ensure that they will be saved a spot in this year's program.

We encourage children ages five to 12 to register for the summer reading program. When children leave school at the end of June, it is not uncommon for their reading proficiency to decrease. If children actively read during their summer break, they are less likely to decrease in their reading skills. But reading is not the only activity we participate in during the Summer Reading Program. We play games, make thematic crafts, visit Fort George and Buckingham House, have presentations from guest speakers and increase our knowledge about certain topics that are related to the program's theme. This year's theme is BLAST OFF, discussing topics related to outer space. The program runs on Tuesdays and Thursdays, starting July 5 and running through till August 18, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m.

This summer we have also decided to continue Preschool Story Time throughout the summer. It will be held on Wednesdays, starting July 6. If you plan to attend Preschool Summer Story Time with your children under the age of 5, you also need to register them on our registration nights.

We hope to see many of you at our registration nights on June 8 and 15 from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m..

In Memoriam

BOCHON, Nick A.

Ten years have gone by.
We think of you in silence,
Your name we often recall,
The jokes and tricks you played.
Treasured are the memories,
That still make us laugh and cry
No amount of money could ever buy.

Always remembered by your family - Mary, Evon, Tony & Families.

It's a girl!

Sox caught snoozing

You snooze you lose! How else can you describe it when guys get picked off on the bases not paying attention? Wake up boys! Not only were they picked off, but also when they had just reached a base, and not just one guy on the team, but also almost every guy on the team who reached first base would eventually get picked off, somewhere along the line. The Sox were caught snoozing last Tuesday night when Vegreville came to town. It seemed like every time the Sox put a man on the bag, he would get picked off. When eleven guys manage to get on base, but only two score, Houston, we have a problem. Mark this down for our next practice. Work on base running and stealing. Roger that!

BASSETT
Review Sports

Lee "BoBo" Letestu, on the mound for the Sox in this one, was also having his share of trouble early in the game. This is the third outing for "BoBo" who seems to need about three innings to really work up a sweat. Then when most guys would be starting to power out and throw a few miles slower, "BoBo" has more heat than ever. Tuesday night was the perfect example, three runs scored in the first, two in the second, four in the fourth and then the "BoBo" shut them down for the next three innings. The only problem was, the Sox team was shut down also. Just in case you haven't figured it out by now, the Sox lost this one. And some guys on the Sox team are a little hard to live with, when they lose!

Another home game on Thursday night, the Sox hosted Lac la Biche in an inter-league game, the team manager giving the "Little M," Ryan MacDonald, the nod to the mound, the rookie going six innings, allowing just seven runs. Nicky "Catfish" Myshaniuk came in on relief in the last inning to close the game. A much better night for the Sox bats, but the base running is still something to be desired. Lee "BoBo" Letestu leads the team with a incredible .765 batting average, with a triple and three RBI's, Nicky "Catfish" Myshaniuk leading the team with 12 RBI's, with a double, two singles and three RBI's, "Tater" Jensen a two RBI single, Tyler Loughran with two sacrifices and five RBI's.

This coming Saturday is a big day for the Sox, the first of four provincial qualifying round robins, the Sox are hosting Sherwood Park and Stony Plain right here at Bassett Field starting at 10a.m.

Down in the minors, Lorn Berg and his Pee wee boys were up in Bonnyville on Tuesday night with a big win. Dylan Berg, Dustin Berg and Jordyn Wozniak on the mound in this one. On the road again on Thursday night to Cold Lake this time losing a close one by one run. Brett Lindquist and Dylan Loughran chucking in this one.

The Bantam girls lead by Murray Cochrane showed a little fatigue after playing three games the day before in Vermilion at a mini round robin and lost one to St. Paul last Monday night.

And now for the K. A. Campbell's quote of the week. "You got to be a man to play baseball for a living, but you got to have a lot of little boy in you, too." Last week's answer to- "I hit with a bat, not with my face." - Yogi Berra.
